Soul band set to celebrate - and say goodbye

Leeds-based band Hollie Sheard & Friends have announced that their upcoming album launch party will be a night for both celebration and sadness as they say goodbye to a member who has been with them from the very beginning.

Drummer Daniel Green, 22, graduates with an MA in Pop Music this summer and is heading to London to begin a new life. He parts company with Hollie Sheard & Friends immediately after the album launch.

The announcement means that Saturday 3rd July will be an iconic moment in the band's history, being their very last gig under their current line-up. "We'll carry on without Dan, of course", says Sheard, "but I think it'll be time to morph into something different".

"This gives us even more of a reason to pull out all the stops for the album launch and really make it a night to remember – not just for the release of By Hook Or By Crook but for Dan."

The album launch party will be held on Saturday 3rd July at The Library on Woodhouse Lane in Leeds. Doors open at 8pm and tickets are £3 on the door, and can be bought in advance from www.holliesheard.co.uk.

[Ends]
