Press Release – 02/02/10 (for immediate release)

Laid-back soul songwriter Hollie Sheard released a new single at the weekend from her upcoming album “By Hook Or By Crook”. The A-side song is an emotional ballad called “All Here”, and the B-side choice was made by her online community of fans, who listened to clips of songs from the new album and voted for their favourites. The firm overall favourite was “Moving On” which snared 52% of votes. The single also contains a third bonus song, which is a live track that was recorded by Hollie Sheard & Friends during a performance underneath a railway arch last year.

The single is on sale for £2 through the Hollie Sheard & Friends online shop at their official website (www.holliesheard.co.uk) and is being sold to raise funds towards the cost of mastering and manufacturing their new album.

Hollie Sheard & Friends are also hoping to book some live performances in the next few months to promote the album, and would love to hear from interested promoters and venue representatives in Doncaster and the surrounding areas.
